

Round Here - Life in the urban village

Stories and reflections to celebrate ten years of the Round Chapel Community Projects

A six week resource book and study guide suitable for individual reflection (daily readings) or group bible studies for Lent 2007

"This little book gives us something of the secret of the Round Chapel, which is hidden in the words of Scripture - like treasure in a field (or an urban village). It reminds us that everybody has a story to tell. There are special people in every place, in every church, community and Bible study group. It reminds us we're all special; the treasure in the field is in us; the Bible is a Book of Life. It's a birthday present from the Round Chapel to us all."
